THE PEACE COLLECTION

For the

Civic Center Library, Livonia, Michigan

Compiled by

Ann Abdoo, M.S.L.S. and Rosemary Doyle, M.Ed

Purpose: The purpose of the Peace Collection is to gather and make accessible, for youth and adults, materials that document efforts for nonviolent social change and nonviolent conflict resolution between peoples and nations.

Scope: The Collection contains information on peace movements, both historical and current; leaders of nonviolence; and Nobel Peace Prize winners. In addition, there is information on nonviolent solutions to conflict as well as information on inspirational leaders dedicated to improving the lives of people through economic and social change.

Sources: Sources used in the data gathering for this bibliography includes: The United States Institute of Peace Library, Washington D.C.; Swarthmore College, Pennsylvania, Peace Collection; Professor Irwin Abrams (Emeritus), Antioch College, Ohio, Nobel Peace Prize Archivist; collectors of women's peace movement documented history; members of Citizens for Peace; and lastly, Amazon for their online system of listing books on related subjects. The prices listed are subject to change as well the availability out-of-print materials. It is the intention that this peace collection be an ongoing project with the inclusion of additional materials as they become known.

As a nonprofit nonpartisan organization, Citizens for Peace Education Fund supports and conducts research, education, and informational activities to increase awareness of peace and nonviolent issues to further strengthen the global movement for a culture of peace. www.citizensforpeace11.blogspot.com
