INTRODUCTION

2006 - 2015 NONVIOLENT AND PEACEBUILDING BIBLIOGRAPHY

Compiled by the Citizens for Peace (www.citizens4peace.com)

The Bibliography includes two sections:

- * Merged 2006 – 2015 complete bibliography for Adults
- * Merged 2006 – 2015 complete bibliography for Youth

PURPOSE: The purpose of the Nonviolent and Peacebuilding Bibliography is to gather and make accessible, for youth and adults, materials that document efforts for nonviolent social change and nonviolent conflict resolution between peoples and nations. The first publishing of this bibliography was in 2006 and has since been expanded in 2007, 2009, 2011, 2013 and 2015.

SCOPE: The Bibliography contains information on peace movements, both historical and current, leaders of nonviolence, Restorative Justice Practices and Nobel Peace Prize winners. In addition, there is information on nonviolent solutions to conflict as well as information on inspirational leaders dedicated to improving the lives of people through economic and social change.

SOURCES: Sources used in the data gathering for this Bibliography includes: The United States Institute of Peace Library, Washington D.C.; Swarthmore College, Pennsylvania, Peace Collection; Professor Irwin Abrams (Emeritus), Antioch College, Ohio, Nobel Peace Prize Archivist; collectors of women's peace movement documented history; The Jane Addams Peace Association (JAPA), an affiliate of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF); International Institute for Restorative Practice (iirp.com); various peace organizations, members of Citizens for Peace, and lastly, Amazon, for their online system of listing books on related subjects. It is the intention that this Bibliography be an ongoing project with the inclusion of additional materials as they become known.

*As a nonprofit nonpartisan organization, the Citizens for Peace Education Fund supports and conducts research, education, and informational activities to increase awareness of peace and nonviolence issues to further strengthen the global movement for a culture of Peace.
