A Letter from the Publisher

We are pleased to advise our subscribers that Merrill-Palmer Quarterly is now available on line through Project MUSE®. This takes effect with Volume 47, No. 1 (2001).

Project MUSE® provides worldwide, networked access by institutional subscription to the current full text of nearly 200 scholarly journals. The online journals include the entire contents of their print counterparts, augmented by advanced search functions, hypertextual linking, enhanced graphics, and campus-wide accessibility.

Project MUSE® was launched in 1995 as a joint effort of the Johns Hopkins University Press and the Milton S. Eisenhower Library. As a primary electronic resource for the academic community, Project MUSE® covers the fields of literature and criticism, history, the visual and performing arts, cultural studies, education, political science and theory, philosophy, and many others.

For additional information and sample materials about Project MUSE®, see <http://muse.jhu.edu>.

Sincerely,

Wayne State University Press
