PROFESSIONAL NOTICES

FEMSPEC

FEMSPEC—an interdisciplinary feminist journal dedicated to critical and creative works in the realm of science fiction, fantasy, magical realism, and other supernatural genres—is recruiting editors and readers as well as manuscripts. The journal encourages pedagogical work, literary and cultural criticism, and creative material, and aims to be inclusive of ethnic and cultural diversity in an internationalist perspective. Fifteen-page articles in MLA style and abstracts of 250–500 words should be submitted in triplicate. Short fiction should be 15 pages or less, and poems should be limited to 3 per submission. Art and book reviews of 1,000 words or less are also welcome. For more information on submissions or on serving on advisory or editorial board, contact: Batya Weinbaum, P.O.B. 146, E. Hardwick, VT 05836–0146 (telephone 802–472–8527; e-mail batyawein@aol.com); and Robin A. Reid, Department of Literature and Languages, Texas A & M/Commerce, P.O.B. 3011, Commerce, TX 75429–3011 (telephone 903–886–5268; e-mail Robin.Reid@tamu-commerce.edu). Subscriptions: $25 for first two issues; $50 for a charter subscription. To subscribe, contact Dr. Janice M. Bogstad, Library and Information Services, McIntyre Library, University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, Eau Claire, WI 54702–5010.
