Supplemental Bibliography

Ethics

2.) Stanley G. Clarke and Evans Simpson, eds. Anti-Theory in Ethics and Moral Conservatism. Albany: SUNY Press, 1989. The publishers describe the book as follows: “This volume documents a movement from theory and rules in ethics to an account of morality based on local practice and perception of the particular case . . . placing moral practice as primary does not restrict one to any form of political conservatism.”

Literature

1.) J.L. Borges. “Funes, the Memorious.”

6.) Walter Ong, Hopkins, the Self, and God. Toronto; Buffalo: University of Toronto Press, 1986.
