Elephant is the official publication of the Elephant Interest Group (EIG), an international non-profit organization established in June 1977, to promote interest in elephants. In addition, the EIG collects and disseminates information needed for education, research and conservation of elephants. The EIG is associated with the American Society of Mammalogists (ASM), International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources (IUCN)/Elephant Specialist Groups, world Wildlife Fund (WWF) and the Department of Biological Sciences at Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan, USA.

Opinions expressed in Elephant and in this SUPPLEMENT by contributors are not necessarily the official views of the Elephant Interest Group or the organizations with which it is associated.
