About the Artist

BORN IN CHINA IN 1946, FU HONG GAINED ACCLAIM WITH HIS FIRST solo exhibition at the China National Art Gallery in Beijing, an honor for which many artists can wait a lifetime.

Fu Hong settled in Australia 14 years ago and has held more than 30 successful solo exhibitions around the world. During this time he has been multi-prize winner in both Australian Artist and International Artist magazines; first- and second-prize winner 2002 & 2004 respectively, of the Shirley Hannan National Portrait Award; exhibited 2000 Archibald Salon; and 1996 finalist Doug Moran National Portrait Prize.

Fu Hong is an artist of impeccable training, arduous practice and serious dedication. His work is instantly recognizable as his style expresses a unique passion and sensitivity. Several works have been sold at auction through Christie's in Australia.

Major Collections include: China National Art Gallery, Murdoch family, Sir Charles Court, Crown Casino, Ethel Turner family, Safti Military Institute of Singapore.

Private Collections in China, Japan, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Singapore, USA, France, Germany, Italy, Holland, Belgium, UK, and Australia.

Antipodes, the official journal of the American Association of Australian Literary Studies, is published by the Association twice a year, June and December.

- Essays on any aspect of Australian literature and/or culture are invited; comparative studies are especially encouraged. The essays should not exceed 5000 words and should conform to MLA style.
- Submissions of short fiction, parts of novels, drama and poetry by Australian writers are invited.
- All U.S. submissions should be accompanied by a return, stamped envelope. International postage coupons are requested in order to return overseas mail.
- Antipodes publishes only fiction, poetry, articles, and interviews that have not appeared in other publications. All material is subject to editing to conform with Antipodes' style. Antipodes does not accept submissions by fax or email.
- The editors and publishers of Antipodes assume no responsibility for contributor's opinions.
- Antipodes is indexed in the annual MLA International Bibliography and AustLit Gateway (www.austlit.edu.au).
- Copyright of fiction and poetry lies with the authors. Permission to reprint critical material must be obtained from Antipodes, and full credit given.
